[exodus 20:1-17]

church values

①	you shall have no other gods before me	know the prevailing purpose of our community is to know god and experience him together
②	you shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven or above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below	priority we will give god top priority in our lives and not limit him in our worship
③	you shall not misuse the name of the lord your god	integrity we want to be a community of integrity where our lives reflect our experience with our god
④	remember the sabbath day by keeping it holy	community our community will be a place where people can find rest for their souls
⑤	honor your father and mother	healthy we want to express distinctions of a healthy family: mutual respect, inherent value and obedience to god
⑥	you shall not murder	loving we will be a community where loving thoughts invoke encouraging words that lead to intentional acts of goodness
⑦	you shall not commit adultery	heart we will be a community of guarded hearts realizing that the heart is where life flows from
⑧	you shall not steal	generous we will be a generous community that gives out of our own sense of being given the gift of grace
⑨	you shall not give false testimony against your neighbor	truth we will be a community of truth-tellers refusing to settle for pseudo-community
⑩	you shall not covet	contentment we will be a community that strives for the life god wants us to live a life of simplicity and contentment
